Columbus First Baptist Church

Our Convictions

Our society has made it easier to GET MARRIED than to get a driver's license...and the effects of this apathy and complacency are very apparent in the dramatic rise in divorces, separations and unhappy lives. Many couples enter marriage with high expectations, planning more for a perfect wedding day than for their lives together.

We do not offer "perfect marriage certificates," nor are we so foolish as to think that because you hold your wedding here, it will be blessed of God. We are not in the business of marrying people, but in the business of encouraging people to focus their lives on Jesus Christ. We believe that as you obey God's Word and apply His principles to your lives, you will experience His blessing. Our ministers are not glorified "justices of the peace," but are men called of God to uphold His Word (the Bible).

We believe that marriage is a once in a lifetime commitment and that this relationship should grow better with age. We offer a loving, supportive Christian environment where you can grow and mature with many others who share your concerns.

Although marriage outside the church is recognized in society, the marriage ceremony conducted within the church is a special way for believers to give public confession of their Christian faith. A marriage ceremony conducted in our church, therefore, is not merely a ceremony to honor two people in love, but is a worship service with public testimony to God's matchless love and providence at work in your lives and in your relationship.

Our Covenant and Counsel

We are serious in our desire to do more than perform a wedding. As you prepare for the special day and the vows you will be taking to love each other until death, we want to help you focus on your relationship as it is and provide you with tools to build it.

We have established the following guidelines that are the result of our convictions. We will agree to marry you on the basis that you as a couple, agree to meet each of the following criteria.

1. The couple must be members or regular attendees at Columbus First Baptist Church.
2. Application must be made at least four months prior to the wedding service. This is in order to allow sufficient time for all premarital counseling and scheduling.
3. The couple must agree to meet with the minister initially in order to determine the advisability of the marriage. After the initial meeting, the minister will schedule at least two other meetings with the couple. At these sessions, the ceremony will be planned and Biblical principles of marriage will be discussed.
4. The minister will cover the wedding ceremony, spiritual nurture, and husband/wife roles from Ephesians 5:15 - 6:4.
5. Between now and the date of the wedding, the couple must attend church regularly.
6. If the couple is living together, and they want to have a traditional church wedding, they must agree to separate between now and the date of the wedding.
7. Since the wedding ceremony is to be viewed as a time of seriousness before God, we expect the couple to take great care in their choice of music and conduct to assure that it is suitable and worship-inducing.
8. All weddings must be under the direction of a Columbus First Baptist Church minister.
9. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed on church property. This includes champagne following the wedding, both inside and outside on church grounds.

The Rehearsal

1. The rehearsal will normally be scheduled a day before the wedding ceremony and will be under the direction of the minister or wedding coordinator.
2. Before the rehearsal, the couple will have provided the minister with a list of the entire wedding party and reviewed with him the ceremony itself.

Photographs

Ushers should inform friends with cameras and professional photographers that no flash pictures are to be taken in the sanctuary after the ceremony begins. This does not include the processional and recessional. The party is welcome to pose for pictures following the service. This helps to maintain a sense of reverence and respects the seriousness of the vows being shared.

Fees

1. The building use fee is $150.00, due before the rehearsal.
2. The minister's fee is $100.00, due at the rehearsal.
3. The instrumentalist should be attained by the couple. (Any other professionals, such as the florist, photographer, etc. should be attained by the couple as well.)
4. The custodian's fee is $50.00, due at the rehearsal.
5. The sound technician's fee is $50.00, due at the rehearsal.

General Information

1. The marriage license shall be the responsibility of the couple and should be in the possession of the minister no later than the time of the rehearsal.
2. The church building should be respected as the House of God.
3. If you desire to be married in our church under the guidelines above, please call the church to set up a time for an initial meeting. Also, please fill out the enclosed questionnaires and mail to the church prior to your first interview.
